

DRESS CODE IN THE PAVILION

Whilst in the Pavilion gentlemen shall wear ties and tailored coats and acceptable trousers with appropriate shoes. Zip-up golf-style jackets are not permitted. Gentlemen will not be admitted to the Pavilion, including the Pavilion Concourse unless, on entrance, their dress conforms to the Regulation. However, coats and ties may be removed on the Pavilion Concourse, and outside balconies, but must be replaced for entry to the Pavilion building.

Ladies should wear dresses, or skirts or trousers worn with blouses, and appropriate shoes. Dresses and blouses may be sleeveless.

Religious, traditional or national dress, or service uniform, is permitted. However, the following items of clothing are prohibited: jeans and their close relations, leggings; jodhpur-style trousers; t-shirts; track suits; training shoes; plimsolls; flip-flop shoes; denim clothing and overalls.

DRESS CODE IN THE MEMBERS' FRIENDS' ENCLOSURES

Members and their guests are expected to maintain an acceptable standard of dress while in the Members' Friends' Enclosures.

For gentlemen, casual trousers or shorts are acceptable, provided that they are reasonably smart. Jackets are not required, but neat shirts with collars, or polo shirts or sweaters should be worn.

Ladies should wear dresses; or skirts, trousers or shorts worn with blouses which may be sleeveless.

Garments considered unsuitable for wearing in the Members' Friends' Enclosures include the following: cycling shorts or shorts usually worn for playing sport; beach wear; gentlemen's sleeveless shirts or singlets; flip-flop shoes; ripped or badly worn jeans; garments in military camouflage colours; and track suits.

Admittance to the Members' Friends' Enclosures will also be refused to anyone wearing dilapidated or offensive garments of any kind. Bare feet, bare torsos or bare midriffs are not permitted under any circumstances.

Quoted from M.C.C. Regulations and General Information for Members 2007