The Melbourne Cricket Ground A STADIUM REBORN

The Melbourne Cricket Ground: A Stadium Reborn is a 192-page photo essay style record of the MCG redevelopment of the Northern Stands.

Authored by Stuart Sykes, and with photography by John Gollings, the book acknowledges the unique history of the MCG, celebrates the stadium's rebirth as Australia's premier venue for the 21st century and sets the MCG in the context of contemporary stadium architecture.

Don't miss out on your chance to own a little piece of MCG history!

Please note: The book will not be available until March, 2008.
