

Purpose

To help inform and educate members about the Club's expected standards and disciplinary process. The following tables provide insight into the penalties members may face because of card misuse or misbehaviour by themselves or their guests.

The penalties listed below should be used as a guide only. Each case is considered on its merits considering the prevailing circumstances and may be higher or lower than the guide below. It remains open to the Member Disciplinary Committee and Appeal Sub Committee to determine a penalty it considers appropriate.

Note 2: Should a member's guest(s) be found guilty of engaging in above, a member would face a suspension (perhaps a lesser term than if the member had committed the same offence) and/or have restrictions imposed on their membership (ie. be restricted from purchasing visitor tickets for a period of time).

Note 3: Should a waiting list candidate be found guilty in engaging in any of the above, they may be subject to disciplinary procedures in the same manner as a member in accordance with Rule 8.2(d) and 13.2.

Note 4: For any second offence of misconduct, members may be required to show cause as to why they should not be expelled.
